

Open the side menu, then click on «My writing models».

Choose a main template that will be the model displayed in the student's exercises.

Choose one or two supported template(s) that will be considered as correct when the student's strokes are analysed.

You can also watch the interactive model for each letter and number by clicking on it.

