

To monitor your students' work, click on one of your student's names. A new screen will open providing you with more information about their work.

You can review each pathway for each student by clicking on the exercise you wish to review. This will allow you to quickly recognize achievements, progression, and difficulties.

You can also replay every stroke the child made by clicking on the letters. Each try has been stored.

